Headlines with Hester...

Good morning and welcome! Rodney has the dreaded Covid-19 this week, so I have the opportunity to bring this week's thought. Fortunately, he is doing okay. My understanding is that he has a very mild case, and he has lost all taste and smell. Marie and I are definitely missing him in the office this week in that he makes everything run smoothly. I appreciate him in all that he does, and I know he appreciates all of our prayers. If you are visiting with us today, please let us get to know you. You are very important to us in that we are glad you decided to join us today in our worship to the almighty God.

This past Wednesday we were thankful to be able to have Bible classes once again. It has been a long a long ten months for me in that bible class is one of my most favorite things we do as a church family. We are able to discuss God's word in a way that allows us to learn from one another, and it allows us to spend quality time with each other. I enjoy sharing life with each other.

The title of today's lesson is 'friends'. Also, the scripture reading for today is Matthew 28:16-20 & Mark 16:19-20. Read these passages and try to figure out what my lesson is going to be about today. Try to predict what I am going to talk about today. And... if you predict what I talk about, me know. Also, if you think of something completely different, let me know what you come up with. I look forward to hearing all of your thoughts from this title and passage.

In this time of life, I find myself being very thankful. Thankful that we can worship together, thankful for the livestreaming capabilities, thankful for bible class, and thankful for all of you. When Morgan and I were in quarantine due to exposure, we had many texts and calls from all of you. From Morgan and I, we want to say a big thank you to all of you.

Lets all worship today as this will be the most important thing we do today.

With Love,

Joshua Hester
