Roamin' with Rodney...

Welcome to the worship services of the Leoma church of Christ! I am so thankful to be able to be together. If you are visiting with us today, please know you honor us by choosing to worship our God with this part of His family. I hope we always take visitors seriously and seek to make you feel welcome and wanted. My prayer is that Leoma could be a blessing to your spiritual life in every way possible. If today is the only chance you ever have at Leoma or if you choose to never to come back, I pray that you can say today was a spiritual blessing.

If our goal is not to help the most amount souls possible, we have the wrong goal church. If our goal is not to teach the greatest numbers of souls possible, then we have the wrong goal church. If our goal is not to encourage and edify one another, then we have the wrong goal church. If you not here today to worship our God, equip yourself for the work of a saint, and show others a great example by your attitude and actions, then we have the wrong goal church. We are not here for ourselves; we are to be servants of Christ. This is not about what I like or makes me feel good, this is about what God likes and has commanded from His people. Our goals are God's goals, anything less would not sufficient, and anything more would be man in the way of God.

So where are we church? What is our focus? Who are we trying to please? What is the most important thing about Sundays? Have our priorities been what they should be? I admit that we have all been shaken and disrupted by this virus, but now what? Am I excusing myself from the spiritual responsibilities and important things of eternity? Has the virus and time caused a weakness in my life? Do I need to pause and reflect on what life is really all about? I am not denying a virus is among us and that should not be wise and cautious in our lives because of the virus and other illnesses around us. But can I be guilty of using the hardships of life as a crutch or excuse to the things that I really need to be doing and focused on? Could it be that Satan has used something to get into the way of my real goals in Christ? Now what? It is always a valid a question in life. Have I done what God has asked of me to be saved? Do I know what the Bible commands of me to be saved and have done that in order to be in the blood and family of Christ? If not, now what?

For the Kingdom,
Rodney Livingston

Thank You!

Thank you so much for all the sympathy, prayers, cards and the care following my sisters problems and death. We will miss her so much! She was a Christian and loved everyone and her family.

*In Christian Love,
Leavel Burlison & family*

The family would like to express thanks for all the cards, prayers and expression of condolences on the loss of our family member. The wooden cross is lovely and I so appreciated the preacher from the church coming to the visitation and funeral. Thanks again for your prayers and concerns.

*In Christian Love,
Regina Norred & Thompson family*

Dearest Leoma church of Christ members,

Words are not enough to thank you for your recent delivery of snacks, notes and drinks for us at the hospital! To say we enjoyed them is an understatement! We have posted the note cards in various areas so everyone has a chance to read them. Your kind encouraging words are now filling our spirits like the drinks and snacks filled our physical needs!

*Thank you again,
The STRHS*

We would like to thank everyone for the prayers, calls, texts, and cards while we were recovering from Covid. It is a blessing to have such a caring church family.

Danny & Linda Lucy
